

Antarctica's White Wilderness

January 22 - February 4, 2028

Antarctica's White Wilderness: Small Ship Expedition

From the elegance of Buenos Aires to the edge of the world in Ushuaia... then onward across the Drake Passage to the Antarctic Peninsula and South Shetland Islands. Glaciers. Penguins. Icebergs. A true expedition to one of the most awe-inspiring places on Earth.

What to Expect On This Incredible Trip

This isn't a typical cruise...

Instead, it's:

- Expedition-style travel with flexibility
- Physically active (Zodiac transfers, uneven terrain)
- Weather-dependent and unpredictable (by design)
- Intimate (small groups)
- Deeply focused on wildlife, ecology, and conservation

You're not just seeing Antarctica. You're stepping into it.
