

Christmas Markets Along the Danube

Nov. 29 - Dec. 7, 2025

It's a magical journey, perfectly suited for the holiday season. Visiting the most festive German and Austrian ports, wandering old world towns that sparkle with myriad Christmas lights and colorful markets. Immersing yourself in rich seasonal traditions and sumptuous flavors. And enjoying the warm, gleeful spirit of a spectacular holiday river cruise along the legendary Danube. You'll unpack only once as your ship transports you through a myriad of fairy tale landscapes and historic cities, while enjoying the camaraderie and convenience of river cruising.

Fly to Nuremberg, where your private ship awaits. There you'll meet your program director and explore this historic city. You'll also visit charming Regensburg. Enjoy a stroll through its Christmas markets and a performance of festive holiday music from a local church choir before continuing on to the medieval town of Passau. Then follow the Danube into Austria, calling it the bustling port of Linz and milk, home to the 900-year-old Melk Abbey. Finally, you'll sail through stunning Wachau Valley before crowning your journey in elegant Vienna.

*Your river cruise also features unique educational and social activities that add to your discoveries. For instance, you'll take a German language lesson. And learn some phrases commonly used during the Christmas season. Along the way, you'll also take part in additional activities like this. Since all our program directors live in the region they serve, they offer a wealth of authentic insight into daily life.
