

Irish Adventure: Dublin, Belfast & the Northwest Counties Sept. 7-23, 2025

Small Group Adventure: Average of just 13 travelers per trip. The mysterious sites and verdant countryside are just the beginning of the Emerald Isle's charms. On this adventure, you'll get to know the unique character of this proud nation. Visit a local farm to discuss Irish heritage. Hike through exquisite mountainous terrain and enjoy good times with locals in a pub. And once you witness the breathtaking allure of Ireland, you will never escape its magic.

Arrive in Dublin to see some of the historic sights of the 1916 Easter Rising before making your way to revitalized Belfast. Your discoveries include Carrickfergus Castle, Navan Fort and a tour of the city's murals with the local cab driver. Then, after exploring the home of traditional handweaving, Ireland's largest fishing port and more along the Donegal coast take in the diverse landscapes that inspired Oscar Wilde. Witness the 702 foot high cliffs of Moor, one of Ireland's most definitive landscapes, occupying a 5-mile stretch along the Atlantic. Explore the 1000 acre Colmore Estate and Abbey, a breathtaking Benedictine monastery.

Then spend a day in the life of a local farmer in rural Donegal and learn how this community is working to promote healthy and sustainable agriculture in Ireland. Since all our trip experienced leaders live in the region they serve, they offer a wealth of authentic insight on local life. They'll give you the back story on all the places you visit while on your adventure. While in Europe, you'll dine on freshly prepared, regionally inspired meals. Space on this adventure is truly limited, so reserve your space today on our website or call (269) 209-5889.
