

Northern Italy: The Alps, Dolomites & Lombardy

April 7-22, 2024

Witness the awe-inspiring landscapes and cultural treasures of Northern Italy on a journey from the fashion capital of Milan and romance of the Lombardy Lakes to the snow-covered Alps and towering pinnacles of the Dolomites. Discover a different side of Italy, and explore the enchanting juxtaposition of Italian and bordering cultures in this scenic region of woodlands, vineyards, and valleys dotted with medieval villages. Witness hidden gems and off-the-beaten path locales. And thanks to our small group size, get up close and personal with the people who live and work amidst the verdant valleys and Alpine splendor of Italy's northernmost lands. With the insider knowledge of an expert local Trip Experience Leader, you'll visit with local families, get to know winemakers, and meet with Ladin-speaking locals to learn about the unique language and culture they are trying to preserve in valleys hidden deep in the Dolomites.

Plus, you'll enjoy recently added features such as a visit to a local winery in Franciacorta. And you'll ride through the majestic Alps into Switzerland aboard the legendary red train, the Bernina Express, one of the world's most breathtaking rail journeys and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. To discover the exquisite landscapes and Renaissance splendor of what many consider Italy's most picturesque region, plan now to join us on this special adventure!
