

Spain & Portugal in Depth

Madrid, Granada, Torremolinos,
Seville and Lisbon

Jan 24 - Feb 7, 2026

The romantic sun drenched landscapes of Spain and Portugal are steeped in vibrant cultures. The Romans, Visigoths and wars have all left indelible marks on this land. Where chivalry and tradition continues to thrive amidst modern backdrops. We invite you to experience the rich tapestry of these two nations as we travel through the heart of the Iberian Peninsula. On this vacation, you'll truly immerse yourself in local culture as you explore this region in depth.

Your journey begins in Madrid, Spain's lively capital. Then make for Granada pausing in route to take in the medieval town of Toledo and the famous lands of La Mancha. In Granada, you'll marvel at the centuries old elegance of the Alhambra before heading to the historic city of Cordova and the Sun kissed streets of Torremolinos along the Costa del Sol. From there, it's onto Malaga, Ronda and Seville before crossing into Portugal, where you'll discover stunning vistas on your way to Lisbon.

In Portugal you'll spend time in Lisbon. The opulent capital city of this historic country, as well as the scenic towns of Sintra and Cascais. Your land tour will feature unique educational and social activities that add to your discoveries. Since all our program directors live in the region they serve. They offer a wealth of authentic insight into daily life. They'll give you the back story on all the places you visit on your vacation and light you along the way with their personal attention and warm ways.

While in Europe, you'll dine on freshly prepared, regionally inspired meals. Your program director will give you insight on personal favorites and local specialties. As you travel, you'll enjoy the camaraderie of your fellow travelers as you dine in a variety of settings. Including local cafes and restaurants. Space on this adventure is truly limited, so reserve your place today on our website or call (269) 209-5889.
