March 18- April 2, 2025

Small Group Adventure: Average of just 13 travelers per trip. Costa Rica contains an astonishing variety of landscapes for a country of its size, from ocean beaches to tropical forests and volcanic mountains, and its friendly people who call themselves Ticos, have created a stable, peaceful democracy. On this adventure, you'll delve into the heart and soul of your destination. Interacting with local people and gaining insight into their culture, our small group size allows us to go beyond the tourist track, exploring the regions hidden gems and heading off the beaten path for spontaneous experiences. All on a discovery filled itinerary offered at an unbeatable value.

Our adventure begins in the country's capital San Jose. Where we'll meet our trip leader and begin our adventure. We'll connect with local people in nearby San Antonio de Escazu, then journey to Sarapiquí in the lowland tropical rainforest. Then we discover the rural villages and fertile farmland of Cachagua and moved to the majestic Arenal volcano.

In the geothermal region of Guanacaste Province, we'll enjoy a horseback ride, then conclude our journey on the Pacific Coast, where we explore Punta Leona's private nature reserve, known for its beaches and coastal rainforest. You'll also be amazed by Costa Rica's natural diversity on a gentle rafting trip on the real sarapiquí and a boat cruise on the Rio Frio. We'll come face to face with some of the most fascinating flora and fauna of the jungle on a nature walk in the Killina biological Reserve. We'll have the chance to spot colorful birds. Including toucans. And at Punta Leona, on the central Pacific Coast, we'll walk along nature trails, watching for species such as coatimundis spider monkeys, iguanas and many kinds of birds. Space on this adventure is truly limited. Reserve your space today on our website or call (269) 209-5889.
