

Spain and Portugal in Depth

Jan. 21 to Feb. 4, 2023

Travel to Spain, a country that conjures images of rocky plains and whitewashed villages, rugged castles looming from distant hills, the windmills that taunted Don Quixote, bullrings, the fiery flamenco, and the strum of the guitar. Portugal brings to mind bold explorers, colorful ceramics, and close ties to the sea. You'll find all this and more on this tour of Spain as you sweep from the vibrant modern capital of Madrid through the olive-tree-filled hills of Andalusia and on to Portugal's Atlantic coast, following a route traced first by the Romans and Visigoths and, later, by the Moors.

Detailed Itinerary: Spain and Portugal in Depth, Jan. 21 to Feb. 4, 2023

Day 1 – Depart U.S. for Madrid, Spain

Day 2 – Arrive in Madrid, Spain

Morning: You are met at the airport by a Grand Circle representative and transferred to your hotel. Depending on where we stay, our hotel will likely offer an on-site restaurant, indoor swimming pool, and fitness center. Each room features wireless Internet access, a private bath with hair dryer, in-room safe, cable and satellite TV, and minibar.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Afternoon: Join your Program Director and fellow travelers, including those who took our Barcelona, Spain pre-trip extension, for an orientation walk to get to know your surroundings.

Dinner/Evening: Continue making independent discoveries this evening, with dinner on your own. Ask your Program Director for restaurant recommendations.

Day 3 – Explore Madrid

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Discover Madrid’s highlights on an included panoramic tour. Among the sights are the exterior of the 18th-century Palacio Real (Royal Palace), an opulent, 2,800-room complex inspired by France’s Versailles. You’ll also admire the Plaza de Espana, the city’s main square. Vibrant Madrid—the highest capital city in Europe—may put you in mind of the paintings of Velazquez, with clear blue arching skies that gave rise to the phrase, “De Madrid al cielo” (“Madrid is the next thing to heaven”). One of the few European capitals not settled by the Romans, it became Spain’s capital city in 1561, when Philip II moved his court from Toledo to the city in which he had been born. Located at the geographic center of Iberia, Madrid was a crossroads of the peninsula and remains a thriving cultural and artistic center, with the liveliest nightlife in the country.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Afternoon: Free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations. Perhaps you will visit one of the city’s greatest attractions: the Prado Museum. Intended as a natural science museum when it was conceived in 1785, it evolved into the repository of the royal art collection by the time it was completed in 1819, and is now one of the world’s most renowned art galleries.

Important Travel Notes:

- For your comfort and safety, we recommend this tour for individuals in good physical condition. If you have difficulty walking, this may be a difficult trip for you.
- We reserve the right to cancel this tour due to insufficient registration. Full refund will be given if tour is canceled due to insufficient registration.
- If traveling alone, we will match you up with a roommate (this tour is double occupancy only).
- Please read the “What to Expect” box on the next page carefully. If you have further questions, call Curtis Whitaker at (269) 209-5889.

Or, if you prefer, return to the Royal Palace to explore its ornate royal apartment, banquet hall, Royal Armory, and Royal Library with its first edition of Don Quixote. Stroll the austere Plaza Mayor, one of Europe’s largest public squares; or simply relax at a cafe and encounter the legendary friendliness of this welcoming city, melting pot for all the varied regions of Spain. Dinner: Enjoy a Welcome Dinner at a local restaurant.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Day 4 – Madrid • Optional El Escorial Tour

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations. Or join us on an optional tour of the imposing El Escorial, a 16th-century architectural masterpiece completed in 1584 as a residence for the King of Spain and a Hieronymite monastery. Designed at the height of Spain's international power, the structure's floor plan was actually inspired by descriptions of the Temple of Solomon. Set at the foot of Mount Abantos, the enormous gray granite complex is the resting place of 500 years' worth of Spanish kings.

Lunch/Afternoon: Yours to do as you please. Your Program Director will be happy to recommend a spot for lunch and free time activities.

Dinner/Evening: Continue making independent discoveries this evening, with dinner on your own. Ask your Program Director for restaurant recommendations.

El Escorial - $70/person

Discover extraordinary El Escorial, completed in 1584 as a residence for the King of Spain and a monastery for the Hieronymite monks. Set at the foot of Mount Abantos, the enormous gray granite complex is the resting place of 500 years' worth of Spanish kings.

Day 5 – Madrid • Explore Toledo • Granada

Activity Note: On select departures the cathedral may be closed, and only the exterior will be available for viewing.

Breakfast: At the hotel. Morning: Begin your transfer to Granada. Just an hour along the route, however, lies a stop that is bound to be a highlight of your trip: medieval Toledo—a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and capital of Spain until the 16th century.

Picturesquely set on a hill overlooking the Tagus River, Toledo proudly preserves its 2,000-year history in more than 100 buildings and monuments. At its peak, between the eleventh and 13th centuries, it was known as the “City of Three Cultures” for the harmonious co-existence of Christian, Muslim, and Jewish communities.

Breathe in this remarkable history as you embark on a walking tour along the narrow, cobbled streets of Toledo's center, enjoying the striking blend of Moorish-Mudejar-Jewish, Gothic, and Renaissance architecture. You'll view El Alcázar, the 16th-century Moorish citadel that stands at a point originally fortified by the ancient Romans and which dominates the city skyline. You'll also discover Toledo Cathedral, which you'll have the opportunity to enter so as to view the stunning artistry contained within.

Passport & Visa Information

U.S. citizens do not need a visa for this trip. Your passport should meet these requirements for this itinerary. It should be valid for at least 6 months after your scheduled return to the U.S. It should have the recommended number of blank pages (refer to the U.S. State Department handbook for details). The blank pages must be labeled “Visas” at the top. Pages labeled “Amendments and Endorsements” are not acceptable.

Vaccinations Information

Our travel partner GCT requires a valid Covid-19 vaccination plus booster shot for all travelers. For other vaccinations that may be recommended for this trip, please visit the CDC's “Travelers' Health” website at www.cdc.gov/travel.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations. Afternoon: Continue traveling to Granada, arriving later today. Dinner: At your hotel.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Day 6 – Explore Granada • The Alhambra

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Tour the mighty Alhambra, one of Granada’s greatest sights. When the Moors crossed the Strait of Gibraltar in AD 711, they claimed a hillside city that had been founded by the Romans and later settled by Visigoths, yet whose history dates to pre-historic times—Granada, which is believed to mean “great castle.” The Moors chose Granada as the site to build their own mighty citadel—one of the great architectural wonders of all time: the Alhambra.

Even from a distance, the Alhambra is a breathtaking sight, sprawling over a hilltop overlooking the city. Construction of the Alhambra began during the 13th century and continued over centuries, resulting in a mix of surfaces and styles. Enjoy an included tour of this complex of palaces and courtyards, a deliberate effort to create a paradise on Earth. Pass by patios, graceful arches, cupolas, fountains, and pools, the Royal Palace, the harem, and more.

After your tour of the Alhambra is concluded, you’ll set off on a short walking tour of Granada.

Lunch: At a local restaurant in the city’s old town so you can experience a classic Spanish culinary tradition—tapas. These small sampler plates allow you to taste a wide range of Spanish specialties.

Afternoon: Free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Dinner/Evening: Continue making independent discoveries this evening, with dinner on your own. Ask your Program Director for restaurant recommendations.

Day 7 – Granada • Explore Malaga • Home-Hosted Lunch • Torremolinos

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Travel to Spain’s southern coast stopping along the way for an included walking tour of the Old Town of Malaga. The main city of coastal Andalucia, Malaga retains a distinctly Spanish flavor, with twisting, narrow streets and a lovely waterfront promenade. Tall palm and plane trees, bougainvillea, aloes, and geraniums make a luxurious tropical paradise alongside the clean, modern port. This is Picasso's birthplace, and was a popular winter holiday site for the 19th-century wealthy. A leisurely walk then takes you past the ruins of an ancient Roman theater, built more than 2,000 years ago.

Lunch: After your tour, you'll get a taste of typical Spanish life as you join a local family in their home for an intimate visit and a freshly cooked meal, accompanied by wine. Together, you'll improvise a way to share conversation and learn more about one another—this usually involves the international language of hand signals and smiles. During this exclusive Discovery Series event, you'll enjoy an authentic and unique interpersonal exchange and come away with a deeper understanding of the local culture.

Afternoon: Bid adios to your gracious hosts, and continue on to Torremolinos, arriving at your hotel later in the day.

Dinner/Evening: Continue making independent discoveries this evening, with dinner on your own. Ask your Program Director for restaurant recommendations.

Day 8 – Torremolinos • Optional Gibraltar tour

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: You have the day free in Torremolinos. Perhaps you'll take a walk to La Carihuela, the original fishing village that was once all there was to Torremolinos. Today, its many cafes and restaurants are still the best places to go for fresh local seafood. Try pez espada (swordfish), pescaito frito (fish fried in olive oil), or the local specialty, pescado a la sal (bream or sea bass baked in a crispy coating of sea salt).

Or, you may join us on our optional tour to Gibraltar. Located at the southern tip of the Iberian Peninsula and settled over a millennium ago by the Phoenicians—and consequently by Arab sultans and Spaniards—Gibraltar today is a British territory.

We'll begin by discovering a man-made wonder as we navigate a network of underground military tunnels created by the British during World War II to protect soldiers and equipment from bombings. Then, we'll visit Europa point at the end of the Rock of Gibraltar, where on a clear day you may be able to take in views of Africa across the water.

We'll stop for a traditional English high tea (included in the cost of your optional tour) in the quaint fishing village of Catalan Bay, then return to Torremolinos.

Lunch/Afternoon: Yours to do as you please. Your Program Director will be happy to recommend a spot for lunch and free time activities.

Dinner: Included at a local restaurant.

Evening: Tonight is yours to relax or continue exploring independently.

Gibraltar - $110/person

Set off with us to discover Gibraltar on this optional full-day tour. You'll enjoy hearing some facts about the extensive history of this self-governing British territory, perched at the entrance to the Mediterranean and overlooking the Strait of Gibraltar. You'll have an orientation tour of this small territory, visit fascinating sites including the World War II tunnels, and then enjoy time to explore at your own pace.

Day 9 – Torremolinos • Explore Ronda

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Discover Ronda on an included tour today. One of the oldest cities in Spain, lovely Ronda—nicknamed the “Dream City” by the poet Rainer Maria Rilke—enjoys a lofty setting on a promontory overlooking El Tajo, a spectacular 360-foot-deep river gorge. Readers of Ernest Hemingway's For Whom the Bell Tolls will recognize El Tajo as the place from which Fascists were thrown to their deaths during the Spanish Civil War.

Though its roots are in pre-historic times, Ronda is like many Andalucian cities in that it saw its glory days under Moorish rule. Conquered by the Christians in 1485, Ronda was one of the last strongholds of the Arabs, and Arabic architecture dominates the old city, set on one side of the ravine. On the other side of El Tajo stands El Mercadillo (the “new” city), constructed mostly during the 18th century. Connecting the two halves of the city is the Puente Nuevo (New Bridge), an amazing architectural feat built between 1755 and 1793 and spanning a dizzying drop over the gorge.

You'll get a sense of both facets of the city during an included tour. Admire the whitewashed houses with charming balconies that line the winding streets of the old town, and view Santa Maria la Mayor, once the city's Great Mosque and later rebuilt as a Gothic Christian church. You'll also see the Palace of Mondragon, where Moorish kings and later King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella took up residence.

Lunch/Afternoon: Yours to do as you please. Your Program Director will be happy to recommend a spot for lunch and free time activities. You'll return to Torremolinos late this afternoon where the rest of the day is yours to spend on your own.

Dinner/Evening: Continue making independent discoveries this evening, with dinner on your own. Ask your Program Director for restaurant recommendations.

Day 10 – Torremolinos • Explore Cordoba • Seville

Activity Note: The synagogue may be closed on select departures, at which time only the exterior will be available for viewing.

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Travel to Seville, stopping along the way for an included walking tour of beautiful Cordoba, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Once capital of the Western world, Cordoba was founded by the ancient Romans at the highest navigable point of the Guadalquivir River, where it was easiest to ship olive oil, wheat, and wine back to Rome. It was after its conquest by the Moors in AD 711, however, that the city grew to become the largest in the world.

Today, Cordoba is best known for its most famous landmark, the Mezquita (Great Mosque)—the third-largest mosque in the world. The Mezquita was built during the tenth century, while Cordoba was in its glory as the capital of the Moorish kingdom of El-Andalus, one of the wealthiest and most powerful cities in Europe, and an important center for science, education, and the arts.

In AD 929, the Cordoba region broke away from the Islamic center, Baghdad, and formed its own independent kingdom, falling into anarchy shortly afterward. The city was conquered in 1236 by King Ferdinand, a Christian who had the mosque consecrated and constructed a cathedral in the middle of it, while still preserving the remarkable beauty of the original structure.

During your escorted tour of Spain's historic cultural capital, you'll find that Cordoba is often a study in contrasts: Moorish and Christian, old and new. You'll pass by a reconstruction of the original Roman Bridge and enter the synagogue—the only ancient synagogue still standing in Spain outside Toledo. You'll also stroll through the Juderia (Jewish Quarter), admiring the famous Andalusian patios of pretty ceramics, iron grilles, and plants.

Your tour culminates at the Mezquita. Here you'll stroll through the courtyard, filled with orange trees and fountains, to the entryway, where you'll be greeted by 850 stunning granite and marble arches of various colors, illuminated by sunlight streaming through the cupolas. At the center of the mosque, find the 16th-century Renaissance cathedral with its mahogany pulpits and choir stalls. Surrounding the cathedral, the mosque remains largely untouched since the eleventh century, revealing some of the finest Islamic architecture in Spain.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Afternoon: Travel to Seville along the Ruta de los Pueblos Blancos—the “Route of the Whitewashed Villages.” You'll see several of these classic Andalusian villages tucked into hillsides and framed with greenery during your scenic ride.

Dinner: At the hotel.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Day 11 – Explore Seville • Flamenco Show

Activity Note: Official ceremonies may prevent entrance into the Seville Cathedral at certain times.

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Enjoy an included tour of city's highlights. Located on the banks of the Guadalquivir River, Seville is fabled to have been settled by Hercules, and its wealth of magnificent monuments and buildings attest to its long and storied history. Founded by the Tartessians, the city was later settled by the Romans, and two of Rome's great emperors, Trajan and Hadrian, were born here. Seville was occupied by the Moors from AD 711 until 1248, and many of its most fascinating monuments date to that period. Today, Seville occupies a special place in Spanish culture, with its fiestas, bougainvillea, and strolling musicians. The fourth-largest city in Spain, Seville is also renowned as the birthplace of flamenco and Don Juan.

Your group will visit the resplendent Plaza de Espana, designed for the Ibero-American Exhibition of 1929, incorporating elements of Renaissance style infused with a contemporary Spanish flair, as well as the Barrio de Santa Cruz, a lovely neighborhood known for its maze-like cluster of narrow streets. Your Program Director will help you wind your way amidst the whitewashed homes, impressive mansions, and charming plazas, such as Plaza de Santa Cruz and Plaza de las Cruces. Admire—and smell—the flowering pots adorning the private patios that you pass. You'll also take in the architectural feat that is Seville Cathedral on this tour, as you admire its towering facade, and go inside to tour its vaulted halls, which purport to contain the remains of Christopher Columbus.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Afternoon: Free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations. Perhaps visit the Alcazar, official Seville residence of Spanish royalty. Explore the exhibits at the Museum of Fine Arts, whose collections include works by Murillo and El Greco. Browse the shops along the Calle Sierpes, Seville's main shopping venue. Or simply relax at a cafe and enjoy the colorful whirl that is Seville.

Dinner: Enjoy an included dinner performance of the flamenco, the intensely emotional dance that was created here.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Day 12 – Seville • Horse-Breeding Farm Visit • Lisbon, Portugal

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: You'll ride through the sweeping Portuguese countryside on your way to Lisbon. Along the way we'll stop in the region of Alentejo, where you'll enjoy an exclusive Discovery Series visit to a working horse farm and enjoy an opportunity to chat with the owners. You'll learn the wrenching story of how many families here lost their lands to the communists and the difficulties they encountered regaining their holdings. A horse presentation in the arena will give you the opportunity to learn the differences between breeds of horses raised here.

Lunch: Included during your visit at the farm.

Afternoon: Transfer to the Portuguese capital, Lisbon.

Dinner: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Day 13 – Explore Lisbon • Optional Bairro Alto & Fado Dinner Tour

Activity Note: On select dates, the interior of the Jeronimos Monastery may be in use for official purposes and will be closed to visitors—on these dates, only the exterior of the building will be viewed.

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Discover Lisbon on an included tour. Built on seven hills, Lisbon has been Portugal's capital since the 13th century, and the area around the steepest hill, Sao Jorge, was first settled by Phoenicians in the twelfth century BC. They were followed by Carthaginians, Romans, several Germanic tribes, and Visigoths. In AD 714, the Moors captured Lisbon, and held it for the next 400 years.

Portuguese explorers began colonizing parts of Africa and Asia at the beginning of the 15th century. Vasco da Gama set sail for India from Lisbon in 1497, and the city became a center for successful voyages of discovery throughout the East and the New World for the next 300 years. The immense riches brought back by these explorers and navigators ushered in a period of building and expansion that gave birth to the new Manueline architectural style, with its ornately carved decorative motifs. You'll see the best example of this style of architecture in the historic section of Belem. Here you'll see the 16th-century church of the Jeronimos Monastery, containing Vasco da Gama's tomb, the ornate Belem Tower, and the Monument of the Discoveries.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Afternoon: Free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations. Perhaps spend some time in the Alfama district, and enjoy the winding alleyways where the city's Moorish heritage thrives. Venture to St. George's Castle, constructed by the Moors on the site of a fifth-century Visigoth fort and once the residence of Portuguese kings. Admire the elegant carpets and crafts at the Museum School of Decorative Arts. Visit Chiado, a fashionable shopping district.

Dinner: On your own in Lisbon. Or, you may choose to join us for an optional dinner in the city's bohemian Bairro Alto district—a historic artist enclave famed for its vibrant nightlife. You'll learn more about the neighborhood on a short panoramic tour as your motorcoach takes you to a local restaurant, where you'll enjoy a traditional Portuguese meal. Before dinner, a trio of musicians will treat you to an exclusive fado performance for a glimpse of Portugal's iconic, soulful musical style.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Bairro Alto & fado dinner - $110/person

Enjoy a traditional Portuguese dinner at a local restaurant in Lisbon's Bairro Alto district, a bohemian enclave that has historically been—and is still to this day—beloved by Portugal's artist community. On your way to the restaurant, you'll learn more about the history of this creative enclave on a short panoramic tour.

Before dinner, you'll be joined at the restaurant by a trio of fado performers, who will give you an exclusive demonstration of this iconic Portuguese musical tradition. This soulful and melancholic form of song found its roots centuries ago amidst Portugal's downtrodden classes, and mixes themes of loss, longing, and hope. Today, fado is a national treasure, enjoyed by locals and travelers alike.

Day 14 – Lisbon • Explore Sintra & Cascais

Activity Note: On days when Sintra Palace is closed for holidays or official celebrations, we will visit the Queluz National Palace instead.

Breakfast: At the hotel.

Morning: Embark on an included excursion to Sintra and Cascais. Begin at the Royal Palace in Sintra, dating back to the Middle Ages. During time on your own in Sintra, you'll see why well-traveled English poet Lord Byron called the town "the most beautiful in the world." Then continue to Cascais, a one-time humble fishing village that has grown into a lively coastal resort town.

Lunch: On your own—ask your Program Director for local restaurant recommendations.

Afternoon: Free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Dinner: Enjoy a Farewell Dinner at a local restaurant.

Evening: You have the freedom to spend the rest of your evening as you wish—ask your Program Director for recommendations.

Day 15 – Return to U.S.
