

Grand Baltic Sea Voyage

Small Group Travel:
No more than 25 travelers
May 2026

Explore this fascinating region with us in a small group of no more than 25 travelers. You'll discover your destination by land and by sea, while meeting the people who call it home.

First, fly to Copenhagen, where you'll meet your trip experienced leader and begin your journey with an exploration of Denmark's capital city. Then board our privately owned small ship and set sail east along the Baltic coast, with ample time to explore the rocky island of Bornholm. Visit the historic Polish seaport of Gdansk, then cruise to Sweden's Gotland Island and visit the medieval city of Visby, a UNESCO World Heritage site, before continuing on to the Baltic states of Latvia and Estonia.

Along this part of the Baltic coast, you'll discover Riga, a dazzling city of Art Nouveau architecture, and Tallinn, a walled port dabbled with stunning fortresses, castles and cathedrals. You'll then stop in elegant Helsinki, a seaside city known for its unique architecture, abstract monuments and bustling market squares. Finally, you'll cruise back to Sweden, where you'll disembark in Stockholm for even more delights.

Throughout your small ship adventure, you'll find that your unique discoveries are enhanced by our small group size. Enjoy lunch with a local family and discover the daily nuances of Polish living. Connect with their cultural heritage with an onboard folk show where you'll catch a glimpse of traditional music and dancing. Take part in a frank discussion with your program director about life during the independence movement in the Baltic States.

As you travel, you'll enjoy the camaraderie of your fellow travelers as you dine in a variety of settings. Space on this adventure is truly limited, so reserve your place today on our website or call (269) 209-5889.
