

Arctic Expedition: Untamed Norway & Svalbard July 2024

Explore in a group of 20-25 aboard our privately chartered 180-passenger ship. Stately walruses gazing at you from behind massive tusks...tranquil herds of reindeer grazing in the tundra...polar bears lumbering about on the coastlines—these are the sights that you may come across at the top of the world. The Arctic was once a place that only the bravest explorers competed to see.

Your adventure starts in Oslo, Norway, where nature and art are higher laws. You'll enjoy the contrast of an energetic city set against the backdrop of mountain ranges and the North Sea, and discover everyday life in a place where breathtaking nature parks and waterfalls exist mere miles from a thriving urban center.

Then, fly to Longyearbyen in the Svalbard archipelago, where you'll board your ship. Our privately chartered small ship is purpose-built for accomplishing what history's intrepid voyagers only dreamed of—exploring the Svalbard archipelago as you spend the next nine nights cruising among ice floes, possibly alongside pods of beluga whales, and past the breeding grounds of guillemots and Atlantic puffins. You'll revel in the thrill of discovery when you breathe in the crisp, pure air and marvel at the neon colors that the midnight sun paints the sky during the summer solstice, when it doesn't set for a six-month period. Let the discoveries you make in the Arctic Circle change you, as you uncover the mysterious beauty of the region's cultural and natural wonders.
