

Ancient Kingdoms: Thailand, Laos, Cambodia & Vietnam Oct. 15 - Nov. 3, 2026

Discover sacred temples and opulent palaces. Visit vibrant cities and local villages as you explore colorful cultures that span centuries of civilization, while you journey in a small group of no more than 16 travelers.

This adventure takes you into the heart and soul of your destination, enabling you to interact with local people and gain insight into their history. Our small group size allows us to go beyond the tourist track to see the region's hidden gems. You'll be led by our experienced guides who know the backstory of each place you visit.

We first fly into Thailand, where you'll explore the river Kwai and the golden triangle. Visit the Grand Palace. Enjoy a conversation with a Thammasart University student. Delight in a Chaopraya River dinner cruise.

After visiting Bangkok, the exciting capital, it's on to Vientiane, the ancient capital of Laos, where we will observe spiritual traditions and sacred sanctuaries. From there we journey to Cambodia, home of the legendary ancient temples of Angkor Wat, Phnom Penh and so much more.

Next, it's on to Vietnam, where we'll witness Vietnam from multiple perspectives, including Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon) and the scenic Mekong Delta. History, culture, food and daily life all come together for a combination of learning and fun. Another benefit to a small group is that it's easier to make friends and gain new knowledge from each other.

*As you travel, you'll enjoy modern accommodations and delicious local cuisines together. Please note that space on this adventure is truly limited, so reserve your place today on our website or call (269) 209-5889.
